Prof. Homer Wakefield, of Palatka, came up on Saturday to see the base ball contest between his present, and his old time pupils, and was an interested spectator of the game as well as one of the official scorers. Many of the professors old friends had opportunity to greet him, and the pleasure seemed to be mutual.

Rev. J. K. Wight, first pastor of the Presbyterian church here, occupied the pulpit of that church last Sunday, morning and evening. Dr. Wight has many admirers in Crescent City who are always glad of an opportunity to hear him. During his stay in the city he was the guest of his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Norton, of Grove Hall.

Mr. Robt. J. Hubbard closed his 'Oakwood" home last Tuesday, on which day he started for his home at Casnovia, N. Y., accompanied by the Misses Stryker and Bingay and Mr. Thos. H. Stryker. Both Messrs. Hubbard and Stryker have growing orange groves in that vicinity from which they will probably gather a good crop the coming season.

The small barn on the farm premises of J. L. Burton was destroyed by fire early last week. There was nothing in the building but some corn and fodder belonging to Samuel E. Neal. Mr. Burton's property seems to have been hoo-dooed, as this makes his third loss by fire since the freeze. Mr. Burton's farm settlement. home has not been occupied by the family in over a year, and their loss is confined to the building which was inexpensive.

The steamer Crescent will be so busy carrying potatoes to Jacksonville from points beyond Palatka that it will not be able to resume its regular run until the middle of next week. In the meantime the steamer is making a round trip daily between Palatka and Jacksonville, except Sunday, when it will come to Crescent City, leaving at 4:30 Monday morning for Palatka and Jacksonville.
